ALLIGATOR PEAR TREE INSURED BY $30,000 POLICY

An alligator pear tree has been insured by Lloyd's for $30,000. This makes an American tree, situated in Los Angeles county, California, the most valuable tree in the world, even outstripping the centuries old date palms of Arabia, and suggests the possibilities of the industry in Hawaii if the quarantine embargo against alligator pears can be removed.
Through the enterprise of Lloyd's of London this tree is insured against damage by wind or rain.
This Avocado tree grows on a fruit ranch at Whittier, Cal. Last year it produced 3000 pears, which brought the owner an average of 50 cents apiece. Besides the pears, which are used extensively for salads, the owner received $1500 for the bud wood. The total amount brought by the tree last year was $3000, which is equivalent to the interest, at 5 per cent, of a $60,000 investment.
Not only is the tree valuable in its production of fruit and bud wood, but valuable by-products can be taken from the fruit, allowing no waste in the event of overripeness or spoiling. The seed is used for the making of black dye, and any fruit unfit for market purposes can be squeezed and the oil expressed. It is used for the finer grades of soap and in rare perfumed oils for lighting.

SOLDIERS EXPECTED TO MAKE BIG CHANGE IN LIFE IN ENGLAND
LONDON, Eng.—Englishmen discuss more frequently than any other war subject the question, "What influence will the experiences of our soldiers in foreign countries have on social conditions in our insular possessions?"
These soldiers, constituting a big proportion of the male population of the nation, will return after having sampled life in Belgium, France, Egypt, India, the Dardanelles and elsewhere.
In most cases their daily intercourse with the foreign peoples is very intimate, and a large proportion of the soldiers who return will come back with a fairly easy command of a new language, with new thoughts, and new requirements.

YUAN SHIH-KAI WILL NOT GIVE ANY STATE JOBS TO RELATIVES
PEKING, China.—President Yuan Shih-Kai, in a recent statement, struck a hard blow at nepotism, which is so thoroughly entrenched in the Far East because of the devotion to family and the belief that caring for relatives is the best means of paying proper respect to ancestors. He said: "I have never allowed my relatives to enter into government service because I have strong reasons to believe that to give government appointments to them, especially if they have no experience or proper qualifications, would only serve to convert them into parasites or dependents. To show favor to one's relatives or friends is purely a personal matter and should not be done at the country's expense."

Mrs. Helen Petrick and her baby son were instantly killed by a Baltimore & Ohio freight train at Cleveland. They were trying to crawl under the train, which was stalled.
